

CAPE COD TIMES

The Cape and Islands' Daily Newspaper © 2006

Vol. 70, No. 165

www.capecodonline.com

Wednesday, July 12, 2006

For Home Delivery: 800-286-2233

★

50 cents

'Smash' finds new home in Newport

By ROB DUCA

STAFF WRITER

The Adidas Tennis Smash, which in recent years was a popular summer attraction at Ocean Edge Resort in Brewster, has shifted venues. This year's charity event will take place on Monday, July 17 and Tuesday, July 18 at the Carnegie Abbey Club in Newport, R.I.

Appearing for the first time for the exhibition matches will be Martina Navratilova. She'll be joined by Rod Laver, Stan Smith, Todd Martin and Tom Gullikson. Proceeds benefit the Tim Gullikson Foundation, in memory of Tom's tennis-playing brother, who died at 44 from a brain tumor in 1996.

The foundation helps brain-tumor patients and their families manage the physical, emotional and social challenges presented by the illness.

The two-day event begins with a celebrity-amateur golf tournament Monday at Carnegie Abbey, a world-renowned Scottish-style course designed by Donald Steel that offers spectacular views of Narragansett Bay.

A tennis clinic will be given that afternoon, followed by a dinner and live auction at The Chandler at Cliffwalk, one of Newport's most elegant ocean-view settings.

On Tuesday, a tennis pro-am and a series of exhibition matches will be played on the historic grass courts at the International Tennis Hall of Fame.

For information on ticket packages for the golf and tennis pro-am, the dinner, or the exhibition matches, call Ryan Macaulay at 954-328-8537 or visit the tournament's Web site at gulliksonfoundation.org.